

THE TRAVELER'S GUIDE TO INSPIRED PURSUITS

JANUARY | FEBRUARY 2010

VIRTUOSO LIFE

$5.95

THE EUROPE ISSUE

ITALY'S DOLOMITES
SCOTLAND CANNES SPAIN
IRELAND SWITZERLAND
PLUS: A YEAR OF TRAVEL

FAMILY CAMPOUT

Known for elephant-back safaris, South Africa's Camp Jabulani has added the new Zindoga Villa to its six suites on the edge of Kruger National Park. The family-friendly home sleeps six in two air-conditioned, Internet-equipped suites that feature an expansive deck, two plunge pools, a private chef, and a dedicated ranger and jeep for game drives. Suites from $1,883 and Zindoga Villa from $4,905, including daily game drives, a $50 spa credit, and all meals and beverages.

Destination Do's

Wedding parties at The Inn at Lost Creek can block all 32 rooms and get private jet transfers to Telluride for the bridal party as well. The boutique property will even personalize the hotel with family photos in the lobby and prepare favorite family recipes in the kitchen. Hotel blocks from $17,000, including one night's accommodations, a wine-and-cheese reception for 60 guests, and private jet transfers for up to nine guests.

TOAST THIS

Champagne-bottle-shaped pendants illuminate The Dorchester's newly renovated private-dining Krug Room. To celebrate, the 246-room London property is offering culinary classes ($250) in which guests prepare seasonal menus, then dine at the chef's table overlooking the kitchen. Feature ingredients include black truffles (February 20), spring lamb and wild salmon (April 17), green and white asparagus (May 22), wild English strawberries (July 17), and grouse (October 16), each paired with wines and, of course, Krug Champagnes. Doubles from $565, including breakfast and a $115 spa credit.

BY ELAINE GLUSAC